

LOCAL AND NEW YORK FINANCIAL NEWS

TRADING LIGHT ON WASHINGTON MARKET

Prices Hold Firm at Yesterday's Levels—Dividends Declared by Local Banks.

A sharp contraction in the volume of trading occurred at today's session of the Washington Stock Exchange. Quotation prices, however, remained practically at the levels established on the previous day.

Lenston Monotype, though not traded in, manifested strength and was in demand. The bid was advanced from 80 1/2 to 81 1/2. Mergenthaler Linotype, the other type machine stock, was also fractionally higher.

The only sales of the day consisted of 19 shares of Capital Traction stock at 85; 6 shares of Washington Gas stock at 76 and a $1,000 Washington Railway and Electric 4 per cent bond at 81 1/2.

The Federal National Bank has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable July 1 to stockholders of record June 7.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent was declared yesterday afternoon by the directors of the District National Bank. It is payable July 1 to stockholders of record June 26. The directors also adopted resolution upon the death of James A. Sanford, a member of the board.

The Security Savings and Commercial Bank has declared the quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent, payable July 1 to stockholders of record tomorrow.

The Washington Stock Exchange will hold no session tomorrow. The members voted today to adjourn until Monday.

U. S. DIVERS MAKE RECORD FOR DEPTH

Work on F-4 Raises Hope for Recovery of Treasure Ships.

Divers of the United States navy set a new record for depth, and it is now within the realm of possibility that the millions of dollars of treasure lying at the bottom of the sea may be recovered, according to the latest issue of the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union.

In raising the F-4 navy divers descended to depths below 300 feet and remained under water from five to twenty minutes, making examinations of the wreck. At this depth the pressure is 12 1/2 pounds per square inch, and heretofore these depths have been regarded as impassable.

The recovery of the sunken Spanish galleons lying in the bottom of the Caribbean sea and the South Atlantic is possible, states the Pan-American Bulletin, and recently there has been considerable activity in the organization of companies to recover treasure from these wrecks. The writer of the article also records it as possible that some of the ships sunk during the present war in Europe may be recovered.

Nine-Year-Old Girl Is Killed by Toy Balloon

ASHTABULA, Ohio, June 22.—Astor Gichlin, nine years old, was killed by strangulation when she was playing with a toy balloon, and as she was following the air to leave it the balloon burst with such force that the frightened child sucked a piece of rubber into her mouth. Seized with a violent fit of coughing, the girl drew the rubber into her throat and was strangled.

Playmates carried her to her home, but her parents were unable to remove the piece of rubber, and the child expired before a physician could reach the house.

Tennessee Copper Drops 5 1/2
Points Following Passing of Its Dividend.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The stock market was firm at the opening today, with few price changes of importance.

Tennessee Copper responded to the passing of its dividend by dropping 5 1/2 points, and the stock of the United States Steel, Studebaker, and Mexican Petroleum moved fractionally upward.

Prices improved during the first half hour.

Reading suffered a reaction around 11 o'clock, selling at 90 1/2, but recovering later. Reading led Steel in point of activity.

Tennessee Copper sold as low as 35 1/2 on the decline.
